RIOTING

At Chicago Renewed Today With Serious Results.

Two Hundred Policemen are Trying To Handle the Mobs.

MANY ARE HURT, FIFTY ARE ARRESTED

Before Noon Today All the Drivers Employed By Big Department Stores Had Quit Work—More Trouble is Expected in the Windy City.

Chicago, June 3.—This afternoon riots between striking teamsters and non-union drivers and the police are in progress at two down town points. Many persons have been injured and over fifty arrests have been made. Two hundred policemen are trying to handle the mobs with but little success.

The most serious riot is in progress at Polk and Flate streets. The other is raging at Clark and Harrison. More officers have been called for.

Chicago, June 3.—Before noon today all the drivers employed by the department stores quit work. The big stores of Marshall Field, Seigel Cooper & Co., Mandel Bros., and Schlesinger & Meyer in addition to the Boston store, Fair, and Rothschild company are affected. Their delivery business is completely tied up.

The warring faction in the teamsters' ranks were gathering their forces all night long, and it was freely predicted this morning that today's struggle would be more bitter than that of yesterday.

The full force of Chicago's police is on waiting orders. Chief O'Neil has sent forth the command that every policeman on a vacation must be recalled and brought into active work at once.

Reports that 100 colored men would arrive in the city to take the places of striking teamsters created a storm in the stock yard district last night.

Fifty policemen were detailed to protect the negroes, who it is said, will arrive today.

The department store drivers' strike spread this morning when the drivers employed by the Boston store and the A. M. Rothschild Co. quit work because their employers attempted to deliver under cover goods bought at the Fair where the strike was inaugurated.

Chicago, June 3.—While the meat riots this morning between the non-union drivers protected by the police and on the other side a mob of 10,000 were serious, there was no loss of life. At State and Adams streets a rush for a meat wagon was made but the police used clubs freely and beat off the crowd. Finally the wagons had to be driven back to the stock yards.

Chicago, June 3.—As was feared, bloodshed and riot have at last formed a part of the record of the meat teamsters' strike. Numerous clashes have taken place between the police and the strikers or their sympathizers.

The police and employees of the packing companies were stoned and at one place when surrounded by a dense crowd of men and women, the police, 50 strong, under command of Lieutenant Collins, maddened by the numerous stones with which they were being pelted drew their revolvers and charged full into the crowd which showed no disposition to retreat. First, stones and clubs were brought into requisition by the strikers and the police used the butt ends of their revolvers freely. When this fight was over there were a number of the strikers needing surgical attention.

None was dangerously injured as far as known, however and the wounded strikers were carried off by their friends. The fighting began on the West Side shortly afternoon and in different parts of the city continued practically all the afternoon.

The most serious trouble of the day occurred in Crosby street, which is known in police circles as "Little Hell." A detachment of police was escorting a number of wagons loaded with meat. A large crowd followed the wagons, shouting and jeering.

The line of wagons escorted by the police was frequently stopped by other teamsters who would manage to pull across the street just in the proper place to prevent the meat wagons from making any progress. The police would order the men away and in a few minutes the performance would be repeated, much to the delight of the immense crowd. Finally one teamster refused to pull his team out of the way of the meat wagon and the police placed him under arrest. Then the fight commenced.

In an instant a shower of stones, mud and sticks fell around and upon the officers, bruising some of them badly. Lieutenant Collins ordered the march of the meat wagons to be stopped and at once charged the crowd.

A large number of women who came up to the aid of the strikers were the fiercest fighters of the lot. One officer was knocked down with a brick and his companions drew their clubs and made war with such energy that in a few minutes the street was filled with men with bleeding heads.

The mob was led by a large man who came from the gas house near Crosby street and who continually called to his followers to "kill the coppers first and hang the scabs afterward." A big policeman got to the man and when it was over the leader was carried off by his friends with his head covered with blood. The police made no attempt to arrest him, for they had their hands full with the hundreds of men and women who crowded around them and fought viciously with anything they could lay their hands on. The crowd increased so rapidly that Lieutenant Collins soon saw that his men would be overpowered unless he took vigorous action at once.

He ordered the men to fall back slowly toward the wagons and the crowd seeing in this action a token of victory, pressed in with shouts and the volleys of stones came more thickly. The police fell back until they had formed a compact mass close to the wagons and then at Collins' order they drew their revolvers and charged the crowd once more. This time the fight was more desperate than before and it was over in much less time. The police struck down a number of men and used their clubs and revolver butts with energy and in three minutes the crowd was broken up and in full flight.

Forming his men around the wagons once more Collins started on his march. As soon as the police started away the mob formed again, and although at the respectful distance they kept after the wagons until they had reached the barns at Halstead and Division streets. In the fight about a dozen policemen were badly bruised and nearly all of them had torn clothing.

By the time the barns were reached the anger of the crowd had grown to a fever heat. An attempt was made to cross Halstead street, but in less than a minute a blockade had been formed which took hours to clear. The trouble at this point began when a Halstead electric street car stopped directly on the crossing. The car was filled with passengers on their way home from work. It was a peculiar coincidence that just as the packing house wagons approached the crossing the current was shut off. It was said that the trolley wire had been cut. A police sergeant approached the car and ordered the motorman to proceed.

"Don't you do it," shouted the passengers. "We'll stay here all night. Don't move."

The motorman informed the police sergeant that the current was turned off and showed this to be a fact by turning the controller. Hundreds of factory hands were being dismissed from the neighboring shops. Scores of heavily loaded wagons drove up and in five minutes Halstead street was packed and jammed with teams and wagons for a distance of four blocks. The drivers drove on purpose in such a way as to form a complete blockade.

The crowd shouted and jeered at the police when they attempted a display of force. Stones were thrown at them and rioters were clubbed and dragged into the patrol wagons. Finally after long pushing and fighting for a long time the police managed to get the wagons to the barns and the doors were closed.

Last night another serious fight took place at Twelfth and State streets. Meat was being removed from the packing house plants by two retail firms.

A crowd awaited the wagons. The drivers were hooted and jeered, but kept their seats and awaited for a signal to leave the packing plants. Shortly after 6 o'clock in the evening the wagons started. Policemen were detailed to follow the men and prevent trouble. The crowd held back from open violence until the wagons reached the Twelfth street viaduct. From a few hundred it had grown into the thousands, and the wagons could not be driven through the dense masses. The officers tried to frighten the crowd, but while the policemen were attempting to guard two wagons each the strikers and their sympathizers removed the nuts on the axles and cut the traces. The strikers clamored into the wagons and threw the meat into the street. The three officers and the eight drivers, aided by the owners of the shops, fought the mob, but they were being rapidly overpowered. Police Sergeant Mooney was passing on a State street car. He pushed his way through the crowd and took a place near one of the wagons where the fighting was the thickest.

As he did so he was seen by Edward Allen, colored. Allen, it is said, was six months ago sent to the Bridewell by Sergeant Mooney. The colored man was wielding a razor and he threw himself at the police sergeant. The two grappled and fought in the mud until the colored man, it is said, had cut the sergeant twice over the head with the razor. Allen was then pulled away by another policeman. Mooney was taken to the Samaritan hospital. His injuries are not fatal.

Meantime Officer Weber had force his way to the patrolbox and sent in a riot call. Patrol wagons were sent to the scene. The police surrounded the wagons and fought back the crowd. Clubs were used and revolver. Slowly the attacking party gave way and in the scrimmage the police arrested six men, among them Allen.

Five patrol wagons were detailed to accompany the meat wagons. First the meat owners rescued the meat from the muddy street and then, under heavy guard drove ahead.

The six prisoners were placed in a patrol wagon and started for the Harrison street station. A crowd followed the wagon and threatened the police. At Taylor street the wagon stopped and the policemen ordered back the crowd another fight started. The horses were taken from the patrol wagon and the six prisoners were for a time released. The officer fought hard and the crowd was forced back. The prisoners were again loaded into the wagon and the horses attached. With the crowd shouting and threatening the patrol wagon was driven to the police station and the six men were locked in cells. They are: Edward Allen, colored; Michael Murray, Charles McDole, George Gore, James Woyselark and John Ritchie.

The volcanoes are remote from the settlements. There was no loss of life.

AT NEWARK

OHIO MILITIA WILL CAMP IN TWO BRIGADES

First July 14-21 and Second Brigade Will Come August 4 and Stay a Week.

Columbus, Ohio, June 3.—Adjutant General Gyger has just announced that the infantry arm of the Ohio National Guard will encamp in two brigades this summer. The first brigade encampment will be at the Newark state encampment grounds from July 14 to July 21, and the second brigade will camp at the same place from August 4 to August 11.

EARLDOM

TO GO WITH VOTE OF THANKS AND A HALF MILLION.

Great Britain is Going to Show Appreciation of Lord Kitchener's Services in Africa.

London, June 3.—The Exchange Telegraph company says the prevailing view is that the House of Commons will on Thursday authorize a vote of thanks to Lord Kitchener which will be accompanied by a vote of 100,000 pounds and an earldom.

London, June 3.—In the House of Commons today the chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks Beach, again denied that the corn tax would be abandoned.

Replying to a question of the Rt. Hon. St. John Broderick, secretary of state for war, said there are 25,565 prisoners of war in South Africa and elsewhere. Of this number 783 are under 16 years of age and 1,025 are over 50 years of age.

SUDDENLY

JOHN W. HAMILTON DIES AT ST. LOUISVILLE, OHIO.

St. Louisville, June 3.—John W. Hamilton aged 78 years a highly respected resident of this place died very suddenly at 9 o'clock this morning. He had been in his usual health and was in good spirits until he died, heart failure being the attributed cause. A wife and nine children survive. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

FOUR

MEN GARROTED AT PONCE, PORTO RICO, TODAY.

LAST EXECUTION UNDER OLD SPANISH LAW.

MEN CONFESSED THEIR GUILT.

One Begged to be Killed Without Having Black Cap Pulled Down Over His Head.

Ponce, Porto Rico, June 3.—The last executions under Spanish law occurred here this morning when four men were garroted. Only one, Jose Torres caused any trouble. He raved about religion and insisted that the executioner kill him without placing a black cloth over his face, saying that he wanted to meet God with an uncovered face. The doomed men were tied to posts at four corners of the scaffold, clad in black robes and their faces were covered. They were executed one at a time. The instruments of death were placed around their necks and fastened to the posts. One sharp turn of the screw broke the necks of the doomed men. There was not a sound or evidence of pain and in three minutes all were pronounced dead. After July 1 hanging will replace the garrote in Porto Rico. The men executed today confessed their guilt.

BARROW'S DEATH

CAUSES GREAT SORROW AT OBERLIN, OHIO.

Distinguished President of Oberlin College Called to His Reward This Morning.

Oberlin, Ohio, June 3.—Dr. John Henry Barrows died at 1 o'clock this morning. He was conscious almost to the last and was surrounded by his family and friends. He was for several years president of Oberlin college. Rev. John Henry Barrows, D.D., was born July 11, 1847, in Medina, Mich. He studied theology at Union and Andover seminaries. While at Union he was an ardent student of Henry Ward Beecher. Dr. Barrows was always a wide traveler. He has lectured in every city of importance in the world.

In November, 1898, he accepted the presidency of Oberlin college. His ability in increasing the endowment of Oberlin college was remarkable. It was through his influence that the Rockefeller $500,000 gift was secured.

LAW

PERMITTING APPOINTMENT OF POLICE

TO PROTECT THE PROPERTY OF COAL OPERATORS

TO BE ATTACKED BY MITCHELL.

Slight Clash Between Officers and Strikers, but No Serious Disturbances—Situation.

Wilkesbarre, June 3.—President Mitchell of the Mine Workers will attack the authority of the coal and iron police. These men he calls the "private standing army of the coal operators." The law which permits the appointment of such police is to be attacked. Four thousand of these police are patrolling mine property today.

Pittston, Pa., June 3.—Operators say that the pumps in every colliery in the Pittston district are in operation this morning, non-union men doing most of the work. Strikers stoned last night and serious trouble was threatened when the police arrived. There was no shooting. Everything is quiet today.

Hazleton, Pa. June 3.—The coal companies found greater difficulty this morning in manning the pumps and fires. At Colerain the VanWeyckle colliery, which is difficult to keep free from water, was left to take care of itself this morning. The pumps were abandoned. The strikers have joined this morning so that this district is now completely under the control of the Union.

ATTACK ON GERMANY.

London, June 3.—The Times today attacks Germany in unmeasured terms. The editorial has caused a sensation. An excerpt follows:

"The German press is, according to its wont, most acrimonious and ungenerous in its comments. It is a disappointment for the German that we carried our burden without a sign of distress, and that we have come out of the struggle stronger and more respected than when we entered it. It is a very considerable advantage that we have cemented the friendship we most highly prize, which finds expression in the generous and sympathetic comments of the New York press, and it is a minor advantage that we have also discovered beyond all doubt where lies the bitterest jealousy of our power."

BRIDE

Whose Young Husband Was Taken From Her By Force is Awarded $25,000 Damages

Nashville, Tenn., June 3.—A sensation was created in Nashville when Miss Rena Blaze and Abram Simon, the latter still to do, were married, but a greater stir was caused when Moses Simon, a brother, and other relatives captured the groom by main force, separated him from his bride and carried him away prisoner, they alleging the wedding ceremony was unlawful because not performed by a Jewish rabbi. Subsequently young Simon secured his release from captivity and returned to his bride, only to be taken away a second time by force, and under threats, it is claimed. The young bride entered suit to collect $50,000 and recovered a verdict for $25,000, and the case finally went to the Supreme court, where the verdict was reversed on an error. Yesterday the case was brought up in the Second Circuit Court, when the jury returned a verdict for $25,000 damages. The defendants are worth the money.

THAT OIL STRIKE

REPORT THAT WELL MAY HAVE BEEN "SALTED."

Company Holding a Meeting to Determine When the Well Shall be "Shot."

Ever since the oil well was drilled in by the Long Run Oil and Gas company, the members of which reside in Newark, there has been considerable doubt as to the genuineness of the strike. It is the general opinion of some of the stockholders that the well was "salted"—that is, filled with crude oil. An effort was made by some of the members of the company to have the oil in the well bailed out. This afternoon the members of the company are holding a meeting in the law office of G. C. Daugherty for the purpose of determining whether or not the well shall be shot. If there is oil in the well the stockholders want to know it. This morning an Advocate reporter asked Mr. Daugherty some questions regarding the character of the alleged oil in the Rocky Fork district, in the northeastern part of the county. He said "That in his opinion the oil in the well is high grade oil, but that he is inclined to think the oil got in the well from the top of the hole instead of from the bottom of the well."

Chillicothe.—Walter J. Hand, charged with the murder of John Flynn, of Cincinnati has pleaded guilty and after the Court hears the evidence in the case sentence will be pronounced. Flynn had only been here a few days when he was murdered in Hand's house May 16, 1901. He was not only shot, but his skull was crushed and his throat cut so deeply that his head hung by a shred from his body. A money belt he wore was never found. Hand tried to escape, but was captured.

JOLIET

SUFFERS FROM A FRIGHTFUL CLOUDBURST.

THREE PEOPLE DROWNED AND MUCH DAMAGE DONE.

THE STORM GAVE NO WARNING.

Many People Rescued in Boats—Factories Shut Down—Property Loss $250,000.

Joliet, Ill., June 2.—A cloudburst struck this city at midnight causing the loss of at least three lives and incalculable damage. Almost every railroad track entering the city was washed away.

Factories have been forced to shut down and business is suspended. The cloudburst struck the city without warning and before the people could get out of their beds the raging waters that swept down from Hickory Dam, which had burst, penned them in their homes. Scores were taken from their home in boats, but at daylight many were still waterbound. The east side of the city was hit hardest. Cass street was five feet under water and many fine houses were badly damaged. The railroad tracks running through the heart of the city were under four feet of water and in some of the lower places cars were completely submerged. Many cattle were drowned and thousands of dollars worth of merchandise was ruined. The Rock Island's big steel bridge across the canal was found to have settled two feet this morning.

At 9 o'clock today the water began to subside and all danger is believed to have passed. A canvass of the city made at that hour shows the following probable casualties:

Eddie McGovern aged 1; Mabel Kennedy aged 15; Lizzie McGraw aged 20.

The property loss is roughly estimated at $250,000.

BY A CAR

LITTLE GIRL ON CEDAR STREET WAS STRUCK.

Motorman Succeeded in Slacking the Speed so That Child Was Not Badly Injured.

Anna, the six year old daughter of Mr. Rudolph Eisert, who resides on Cedar street, narrowly escaped death Monday evening. She was walking south on Cedar street when she noticed her brother on the opposite side of the street. She started to cross the street directly in front of a southbound electric car. The motorman saw her and applied the brakes, but before the car could be stopped it hit the little girl with considerable force.

The motorman sprang from the car and picking the injured child up carried her into her home and handed her over to her mother. A physician was summoned, who found on examination that the child had sustained several bad bruises about the head, but that she was not seriously injured.

In this connection the warning should be repeated: Teach children to keep off the street and to be especially careful on streets having electric cars. The little Eisert girl fortunately was not badly hurt but the next child who is struck by a car may be killed.

A FRIGHTFUL DEATH.

Louis Green, employed in Montgomery's saw mill near Johnstown, who died Monday from injuries received at the mill Saturday, was buried this afternoon. Mr. Green slipped and fell against the circular saw at the mill and his body was almost severed.

Findlay.—The forty-ninth annual State Sunday School convention of Ohio opened here Monday and will continue until Thursday. Dr. Joseph Clarke of Columbus, the General Secretary, arrived with his staff and established headquarters. Eight hundred delegates, ten from each county, comprise the representation at the gathering. In addition to these 500 visitors are expected.

CHAMPIONING HOPELESS CAUSE.

What more could have been expected of Senator Spooner, whose speech on the Philippine bill is said by Washington correspondents to have been "a distinct disappointment to the friends of the administration?"

The man—senator, representative or journalist—who champions the administration's policy in the Philippines finds himself immediately upon the defensive and great orations are not possible in that attitude.

The administration champion can only wave the "old flag," cry "treason" at the opposition and make rhetoric take the place of reason as far as may be.

All of these things Mr. Spooner did, and did them as well as they could be done. He could not do better because it was impossible to do better.

There are cases wherein the eloquence of the ages would be futile to make the worse appear the better reason. It is Mr. Spooner's misfortune that he has been enlisted in such a cause.

The disappointment of the administration will be repeated at every effort of its defenders in Congress.

A pleasing feature of the celebration at West Point on Monday next of the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of that institution will be addressed by two veterans of the Civil war, one a Union Veteran and the other a Confederate. General Ruger, of the class of '54, is to speak for the Union army, and General Alexander, of the class of '57, is to tell how much the Confederate army was indebted to West Point for its skill in the art of war. The moral of this mingling of the Blue and the Gray at a government institution is that the war is over and that each side recognizes the honesty of purpose of the other, however much they agree to differ as to the merits of the question in dispute.

Petty Egotism of the President.

(Syracuse Telegram.)
The strenuous commander in chief by his repeated snubbing of General Miles, as well as by his attempted humiliation of Admiral Dewey and Admiral Schley, will not popularize himself with the country. His offensive and unjust course toward the brave general and the distinguished admirals is an evidence of a petty spirit of egotism and audacity which is not approved by the American people.

A Valuable Public Official.

(Omaha World-Herald.)
The American people have faith and confidence in General Miles. Everything which he has said and done, incurring the enmity of the Republican administration, has been amply justified, and he stands before the American people today as one of the most valuable public men that has ever had the opportunity of serving them in emergencies.

AN OUTBURST OF IMPERIALISM

(Pittsburg Post.)

As Washington is crowded at this time with office-holders, office-seekers and Republican politicians, and they pack the galleries of Congress as claqueurs of the defenders of the administration Philippine policy, it is not surprising that they should cheer their favorite orators to the echo. They are the raw material out of which imperialism has its growth as a bread-and-butter question. But a new feature was introduced on Saturday when the claque attempted to hiss down a Democratic senator, who was arguing from incontestable evidence that the whitewashing witness from the Philippine, whether soldiers or civil office-holders, were not to be relied on to tell the whole truth. They are under orders, these selected witnesses, have been contradicted and have refuted themselves; but they fully understand that promotion and advancement wait on the whitewashing narratives they present. They cannot all be made brigadiers general, like Funston, but they will know when to cheer and when to hiss. For when American senators are hissed in the open Senate by a packed lobby, for exercising their constitutional right of free discussion, it is easy to see that the poison of imperialism has found lodgment, and is ready to fawn and cringe that thrift may follow fawning. The story is as old as imperialism.

While this hissing of anti-imperial senators was going on in the senate chamber, it is refreshing to read that President Schurman, of Cornell, the head of the first Philippine commission, and one of the best informed men on Asiatic conditions in this country, was addressing a great religious association at Boston in defense of American principles as applicable to the Philippines. He makes ample answer to the imperial speeches of Lodge, Foraker and Spooner, to say nothing of the way Senator Hoar demolished their arguments and crooked statements of alleged facts. In the end we believe the people of this great country, imbued as they are with the spirit of American liberty and the Great Declaration, will decide justly and rightly. The conscience of the people is being aroused, and it will overwhelm the tricky devices and shallow doctrines of the politicians and place-seekers, in the army or out of it.

ROOSEVELT EVADES THE ISSUE.

(Chicago Chronicle.)

Mr. Roosevelt's address at Arlington cemetery was an elaborate defense of the army, full of assumed indignation and wrath.

Its fatal weakness lay in the assumption that the army needed defense—the assumption that anybody whose utterances are deserving of notice has attacked the army as such.

Individual soldiers and their conduct have been denounced, and the president admits that they richly deserve denunciation; the army as a whole has not been denounced, nor even the army in the Philippines, as Mr. Roosevelt assumes that it has been.

What has been denounced is the policy of the Republican administration which has made war necessary, with all the cruelty and misery which are the inevitable attendants of war. Criticism of individual officers and men has been merely incidental to the condemnation of the policy which forced them to wage war.

This fact Mr. Roosevelt wholly ignores. He assumes that war was unavoidable, which is not true, as there is the best reason for believing: All the facts set forth in the earlier official reports show that the Filipinos were disposed to receive us with open arms as their deliverers from Spanish tyranny, just as we were the deliverers of the Cubans.

Officers of our navy traveled extensively over the island when, outside of Manila, it was under no other control than that of the Filipinos, and everywhere they were received with the greatest hospitality and assisted in the accomplishment of their mission of observation.

There was no sign of hostility until the Filipino leaders found out that it was not the intention of the Republican administration to treat them as it had engaged to treat the Cubans, and when after putting forth every effort to that end they utterly failed to secure from the representatives of the administration in the islands any sort of assurance as to the political future of their archipelago.

There is not the least reason in the world to doubt that if proper assurances had been given to the authorized representatives of the people, even though they had been less complete than those which had been given to Cuba, our representatives would have met with no more resistance in Luzon, or in any part of the archipelago under Tagalog influence, than was encountered in Cuba.

The policy which made enemies of all the Christians of the islands and left us only pagans and Mohammedans for friends (as Governor Taft testified before the Senate committee) plunged us into war. But for that we would never have needed a large army in the islands, and not a hostile gun would have been fired.

It is the belligerent and imperial policy, and not the army which has been compelled to carry it into effect to the best of its ability, that is condemned by all the lovers of liberty and peace who understand the situation. The cruelty of which complaint has been made is only a necessary incident of that wretched and wicked policy.

This is the truth of the matter, and it is idle for Mr. Roosevelt to attempt to dodge or conceal the issue.

ST. VINCENT

MAY SINK INTO THE SEA AS LA SOUFRIERE IS ACTIVE.

The Huge Volcano Continues Her Earthshaking and Throws Out Mud and Sand.

Kingstown, Island of St. Vincent, B. W. I., Friday, May 31.—La Soufriere volcano is still active. Another eruption occurred at 3 o'clock this morning. It was accompanied by a thunderous noise and a shock or earthquake while volumes of dense vapor ascended to such a height that they were visible from Kingstown. The vapor formed a thick cloud over the crater of the volcano, and this cloud was illumined as if by fire. In the crater itself the lightning was more vivid than upon any previous occasion. No damage was done and the eruption ceased at the end of an hour. With the exception of these occurrences the night was quiet and the weather fair.

Throughout Friday the crater was capped with dense gray and silver clouds and sand fell heavily from the mountain on the leeward side of the mountain within a radius of eight miles.

The American scientist who started to ascend La Soufriere is still striving to reach the summit. During the intervals when the volcano was quiet yesterday.

terday he reached a point almost half way up the mountain. He reports, to the awe of the inhabitants that the island of St. Vincent may sink into the sea. There are clear indications, he says, that a considerable portion of the leeward district will subside.

Owing to the continuous rain there have been heavy floods in the windward district of the island, and many houses have been washed away or filled with mud. At Rabacca, the storehouse, a large brick building was washed into the sea by a stream of mud. The wharf at Rabacca and the cargo crane there are also covered with mud.

In case any supervisor merely appointed is not present to open the polls, any Democratic elector of the township may be chosen to act by the electors present, and after being duly qualified as herein stated, shall proceed to conduct said election as here provided.

Each supervisor being first duly sworn or affirmed by some officer authorized to administer oaths, and he is a legal voter of the township; that he will faithfully and correctly conduct said election, protect it against all frauds and unfairness, carefully and truly canvass all votes cast thereat, shall then cause the electors present, possessing the qualifications above set forth, to choose two judges of elections and two clerks to assist him in receiving and taking account of the votes cast, to each of whom shall be administered by some officer authorized to administer oaths, the same oath taken by said supervisor.

The judges and clerks shall then proceed as in general elections to conduct said election under the provisions of this call and said law, and to entertain and determine objections to any elector. The supervisors and judges at the close of the polls shall count the votes and declare the result and said supervisor shall return a poll book and tally sheet, duly certified and sealed up securely in an envelope, to the Chairman of the Central Committee on Monday, June 9, 1922, not later than 11:30 o'clock, a. m., and said Chairman and said supervisors shall meet at said time in the Convention Room of the Court House in the City of Newark. The Chairman shall then with the assistance of said supervisors proceed to open said returns, count the votes cast at said Primary Election, and declare the result. The candidates for the several offices so found to have received the highest number of votes shall be declared the nominees for the Democratic party.

The Supervisors to conduct said Primary Election were chosen at said convention as follows:

TRY THIS TEST

And See if Your Kidneys Are Diseased

A very simple way to determine whether your kidneys or bladder are diseased is to put some of your urine in a glass tumbler and let it stand 24 hours; if it has a sediment or a cloudyropy or stringy appearance, if it is pale or discolored, you do not need a physician to tell you that you are in a dangerous condition. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy speedily cures such symptoms as pain in back, inability to hold urine, a burning scalding pain in passing it. Frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, the staining of linen by your urine and all unpleasant and dangerous effects produced on the system by the use of whiskey and beer.

In speaking of the good done him by Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, the Rev. Aaron Coons, D. D., pastor of the M. L. church of Rhinecliff, N. Y., says:

"I most sincerely believe that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best kidney, liver and blood medicine made, and I can say that, for I know by experience it will do all that is claimed for it."

"Favorite Remedy" is a vegetable help to the stomach and bowels in performing their duties properly. It overcomes and permanently cures dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness and rheumatism. It is absolutely harmless and purely vegetable. It contains no narcotics or minerals in any form, no dangerous stimulants, no mercury or poisons, and is the only kidney medicine that does not constipate.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is sold by all druggists at $1.00 per large bottle, or six bottles for $5—less than one cent a dose.

Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail.

MISSED CAT

BUT THE BUCKSHOT KILLED MISS VIOLA ALLEN.

Negro Who Was After His Chicken Thief Arrested at Burlington, New Jersey.

Burlington, N. J., June 2—Miss Viola Allen, daughter of Ridgeway Allen was Sunday killed by a charge of buckshot intended for a thieving cat. The man who pulled the trigger is Henry Elsey, colored, who is now in jail.

For some time past Elsey has been missing his small brood of chickens, cat that had been detected hanging and attributed the pilferings to a tramp cat that had been detected hanging around the coops. Seizing his gun he followed the cat into the woods and laid down behind a clump of bushes to await a favorable shot at the thieving animal. At the same moment Miss Allen passed on the opposite side of the bush that concealed Elsey. At the same time also the cat appeared and Elsey fired the gun. Beyond the cloud of smoke there was a single cry and Elsey was horrified to see that he had shot a handsome young woman. A gaping wound was made in her throat. Elsey summoned help, and the dying girl was carried to her home, but before a doctor had reached her she was dead.

A New Back for an Old One—How It Is Done in Newark.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the joints are so lame to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the bad back for a new and stronger one. Follow the example of this Newark citizen.

Mr. G. B. Myers, 39 South Front street, freight conductor B. & O. says: "I had a pain across the small of my back for four or five years. It was such a constant ache that I had little chance to forget it. I went to Crayton's drug store and got Doan's Kidney Pills. This was not the first medicine I had used in trying to get rid of my trouble, but I can say that it is the first that ever gave me quick and lasting relief, for the backache entirely disappeared."

ENDED IN DEATH.

ARTHUR STALEY'S ACCIDENT WAS FATAL.

Cow Has Symptoms of Hydrophobia. New Minister—New Restaurant. Schools—Hebron News.

Hebron, O., June 3—The accident to Arthur Staley published in a Springfield, Ohio, dispatch to Saturday's Advocate, has resulted fatally. The young man was struck by a car and both legs were badly mangled.

The sad news of his death was quite a shock to Mr. Staley's friends here. His mother visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. M. Madden last Thursday, and the writer being present, heard her speak frequently of her only child, her son, who had just recently gone to Springfield, much against their wishes, to seek employment. She told how uneasy she felt for his safety in a large city and longed for his return to their home at Wagram. Every word uttered expressed that deep mother love for her son. How sad indeed, is the return of her boy, a mangled corpse. While we sympathize with the parents, we have only a faint idea of the place left vacant in that home. Mrs. Madden and daughter, May, went to the home Saturday. Other members of the family attended the funeral which occurred on Monday at 2 p. m. at Wagram.

Quite an excitement was caused here Saturday when it was learned that a fine cow belonging to Perry Comisford had symptoms of hydrophobia. She was found in the field lying in convulsions with her five months old calf beside her. To end her sufferings she was shot.

Much anxiety was felt for the little child of Mr. Comisford as it had drunk of the milk taken Saturday morning, and immediately a telephone message was sent to Columbus, also one to Dr. Smith of Newark, who thought nothing serious would result from drinking the milk. The cow is supposed to have been bitten by a mad dog, probably the one that was killed by Chas. Bounds near Buckeye Lake after biting a number of his stock, as that dog passed through Hebron and was seen to bite two fine bird dogs belonging to T. M. White and George Smith. However these dogs have no symptoms as yet of hydrophobia but much uneasiness is felt about them.

Miss Clara Madden will leave Saturday for Ada, O., to attend Normal school.

Rev. Mr. Elwinger of Hiram, Ohio, has accepted a call to the Church of Christ here, and began his work Sunday, June 1. He will locate here, and preach half the time at Croton.

Rev. J. H. Rogers preached the memorial sermon at the M. E. church Sunday evening.

Chas. Strawn has opened a first class restaurant in the Odd Fellow building much to the delight of those who stop over on electric cars, as the car stops right in front of his room, making it very convenient for parties wishing lunches. He also keeps on hand ice cream, fruits etc.

Rev. W. S. Cook, of Fayette, Ohio, called on his old friends here last week.

Mrs. Church and daughter, Mabel of Granville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Burch.

Mrs. Oscar Taylor has returned home after spending two weeks at her home in West Virginia. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, accompanied her home and will make an extended visit.

Misses Mary and Nellie Hutzel and Nellie Whittens of Columbus, spent Sunday with their parents here.

A very pleasant dinner party was given last Wednesday by Mrs. Joseph Atkinson at her home near Pataskala. The table was exquisite in its appointments and decorations. A large floral piece formed of lilies and ferns was placed in the center. The following ladies from Hebron were present: Mrs.

TONES UP THE STOMACH.

Any disease which impairs the normal working of the stomach is certain to bring on a state of nervousness. On the other hand, a remedy which aids digestion and tones up the stomach is a sure cure for nervousness. For this reason BLOOD WINE is the most popular nerve tonic sold. Mrs. Jennie Wilson, corner of Market and Parker Streets, Lawrence, Mass., says: "I have been troubled with nervousness and dyspepsia for five years. Medicine did me no good until a friend advised BLOOD WINE. Have taken three bottles and am entirely cured."

FOR THE CHILDREN

Keeping Store.
Elmer A. Henderson, Lake Mills, Ia., is what is termed a hustler. Early in 1899 his father let him have a showcase on one side of his store. He bought candies, gum, marbles, whistles, etc., displayed them in the showcase and sold them. He borrowed the money with which to buy the stock. His largest sale, he says, was on July 4, 1899, when he sold $5.29 worth of goods. During the summer he sold soda water. In December of that year he sold the remainder of his stock to his father for $12, the adventure netting him $25. In October, 1899, he bought a yearling calf for $12 and a saddle blanket for $8. In July, 1900, he bought a pig for $3 and in August two more for $2 each. He worked for his father or used for his stock. In March, 1901, he sold two hogs for $24 and on April 1 one for $15.67. Elmer has had further experience in buying and selling, but this is enough to show what a business boy he is. Among the things he has bought with his money is a 2½ by 4 printing press, with two fonts of type. He has $100 out at 6 per cent interest and $8.75 cents in cash, together with some live stock, still on hand. He sends us a copy of his paper, which he calls Silver Moon.—American Boy.

How Three Little Girls Helped.
An exchange tells of a little girl who, eager to help in the money making effort for a new church edifice in her home town, put on her thinking cap to good advantage. She copied on sheets of rather heavy paper a recipe for ginger cakes, of which she was very fond and which were wholesome eating for children. These she sold to housekeepers in town for 5 cents each. With the help of two little friends she also conducted a weekly cake sale for the children themselves. The little girls made the ginger cake, cutting it out in the shape of stars, crescents, animals, birds, bats, etc., which they sold, two for a cent, every Saturday afternoon to a clamoring army of eager youngsters. The recipe, which will be liked in any family of children even without being turned to philanthropic use, is as follows: One cup of molasses, one-half cup lard, one rounding teaspoonful ginger and one level teaspoonful baking soda dissolved in hot water; flour sufficient to make a stiff dough.

Some Live Birds.
In India there is a bird called the bottle bird because it builds a nest which looks just like a bottle. But it is not the wonderful nest I wish to tell you about, but something much more wonderful, I think. You know, in India birds have many enemies, and these enemies are afraid of light. So when Mr. and Mrs. Bottle Bird make their home they stick ever so many balls of clay all around the front door. These are really candlesticks, but I do not believe you can guess what the candles themselves are. They are fire beetles. Fire beetles are something like our fireflies, only much brighter. Mr. and Mrs. Bottle Bird catch the fire beetles and stick them in the balls of clay, and there they stay, making the whole nest quite bright with light.

So you see Mr. and Mrs. Bottle Bird and all the little bottle birds can sleep quite peacefully all night because they know they are safe from all enemies.

Child Laborers of Japan.
Japan, as rapid as its development has been and as perfect a country as it is today, has not avoided the evil of child labor. In the Japanese match factories the boxes and labels are made by little girls who are wondrously dextrous in the work. These little experts get only from a halfpenny to twopenny for twelve hours' work, and they are probably about as tired as any one by the time the day is done.

One Thing Missed.
"Well, my little man," said the preacher the day after, "did you get everything you expected to on Christmas?"
"Nope. I didn't get one thing ma told me I was going to get."
"Indeed! And what was that?"
"The stummock ache."—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Boy Gallies.
It is not the modern astronomer who is educated and trained in scientific institutions and great observatories, but enthusiasts, like the boy Gallies, who made a telescope out of pieces of glass, who make the greatest discoveries. With this homemade telescope he discovered the rings of Saturn.—Success.

"Poor Papa."
One day, about a month ago, As George, all in Sunday best, was waiting till 'twas time to go "To Sunday dinner with the rest, He sighed a little sigh and wished he knew Of "something nice" a little boy might do.

And papa, all at once, began To sing; the noise he made was more Like swarming bees or thunder than The tune we knew as "Shining Shore," And little George, with blue, wide open eyes, Regarded papa with a pained surprise.

His loving, loyal little soul Was troubled by a nameless dread As, with a noiseless step, he stole To where his mamma sat and read. He laid one little hand upon her book And met her eyes with anxious, pleading look.

She closed the book and on his hair She laid her fingers, soft and cool; But, with a gesture of despair, George pointed to the music stool And in two words voiced pity, fear and dread.

"Poor papa!" This was all that George said.

Why mamma shrieked and dropped her book And laughed aloud George could not see Nor why his grandma fairly shook With merriment and childlike glee. George left the room and started down the hall.

He did not understand the joke at all.—Charles Perez Murphy in St. Nicholas.

ANOTHER TILT

BETWEEN MAYOR FORRY AND THE CITY COUNCIL.

Republican Members Take a Hand in Opposing Mayor's Policy to Force Appointments.

Monday night's City Council meeting was characterized not only by another tilt between the Mayor and the Council, but by a lively little brush between Mayor Forry and two of the Republican members of the City Council.

It will be remembered that at a recent meeting much time was consumed in an effort of the Mayor to have many of his appointments confirmed, but in each instance the appointments were rejected by the Council. Monday night the same program was resumed and after two names had been presented by the Mayor and had been turned down by the Council, Mr. Chas. Deardurff, Republican member from the Third ward, arose and said that he couldn't vote to confirm these appointments for the reason that he didn't know the men and he thought that the Council was entitled to know the men for whom they were expected to vote before the names were sprung on the Council by the Mayor.

At this point Mr. Thomas J. Gainer, Republican member from the Eighth ward, stated to the Council that in his opinion it was time to "stop this foolishness." He said it was plainly evident that Mayor Forry's appointments could not be made in the way the Mayor was attempting to make them, and he said that the matter ought to be dropped at least, for the present as the time of the Council he considered too valuable to be wasted in such a manner.

The City Council met Monday night in regular session, with President Rossell in the chair and members present: Messrs. Banton, Davis, Deardurff, Fromholtz, Gainer, Linn, Miller, H. Moser, Jones, J. R. Moser, Payne, Smith, Spees.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

Mayor Forry's nominated Robert Bel to succeed Don Shaw as patrolman to date from May 20; nomination not confirmed 5 yeas to 4 nays.

D. E. Hankinson was nominated to succeed Henry Rinehart, and Mr. Linn moved to confirm. Mr. Deardurff said that he would have seconded the motion to confirm, but he did not know these men and did not feel that he could vote for them. Mr. Gainer said he felt the same way and as there were no hopes of any one being confirmed he thought the Mayor should drop the matter for the present, as the Council's time was too valuable to be wasted in this manner.

The Mayor said that he had certain legal rights, to save which, he intended to make the nominations. He then nominated F. Haslet to succeed H. Jacobs, and Henry Rinehart to be Lieutenant of Police, but no motion to confirm was made.

City Solicitor Smythe said that up until the resignation of Jacobs, the city had been carrying one more patrolman than the ordinances authorized and that when Jacobs resigned, it really created no vacancy to be filled by appointment, so that the Council had no official knowledge whether Haslet was now on the force or not. The Mayor said that this would be a question for the courts to decide, thus inviting litigation, or at least inferring that there would be litigation. The matter was then dropped after some further discussion by the Mayor and Mr. Jones.

The gas and light committee recommended the purchase of a 150 horsepower boiler for the electric light station; adopted.

at the intersection of Locust and Tenth streets; adopted.

Mayor Forry reported $92 collected during the month of May; received and filed.

Attorney T. L. King, representing two men named Dewitt and Livingston, who claimed they contracted smallpox last fall during the epidemic by carelessness of employees of the city Board of Health addressed the Council. The matter was referred to the law committee to look up the matter as to whether the men had any just claims against the city.

Regarding the claim of Mrs. Trexger for injuries received on account of the defective condition of Vallandigham street bridge, the Solicitor said that the claim of $150 was exorbitant, but that the city was undoubtedly liable for some amount. He advised some action.

The Solicitor also called attention to the fact that the donors of land for street purposes for Riley and Williams streets in West Newark, wanted it so used or they wanted the land back. He said a law suit would soon be instituted unless something was done. Referred to street committee.

He also suggested that the defective fire in the Vogel building on Second street, be referred to the street committee and chief of fire department with power to act. This was done.

Caleb Bourner reported $24.30 collected during May; received and filed.

Rev. Mr. Brown and John Hughes were present and said they owned some land east of the Heisey plant, and that a great portion had been laid out in lots and platted, and that they were anxious that this portion should be accepted as an addition to the city of Newark. Mr. Brown was told to bring the plat to the next meeting.

A communication from C. L. Reamer was read, demanding the return within 10 days of certain property now in the hands of the City Civil Engineer, which he claimed was his, referred to the street committee.

Forty-six residents of North Third street petitioned that the name of said street above North Park be changed to "Hudson avenue."

R. Scheidler in a communication called attention to a sewer on South Second street, which was referred to the sewer committee.

A communication from property owners' granting permission to Newark Lodge of Elks to use First street from Main to Locust for six days for their carnival in September, was received and filed.

An ordinance was passed under a suspension of the rules, levying a tax of 12½ mills for municipal purposes on each dollar of taxable property as returned.

An ordinance was passed, changing the name of North Third street to "Hudson avenue," under a suspension of the rules.

The finance ordinance was passed.

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

Kerchief Bags.
Besides the number of rich and artistic chabetaie bags of tinted kid mounted in gold or silver, of darker, very fine leathers richly dyed and variously decorated, of fish scale paillettes or of Lyons velvet with jeweled clasps that are sold by importers of fancy wares are carried many delicate and elegant little amonies and mouchoir bags formed of soft fawn colored suede kid dotted with gold or cut steel beads and either round or oblong in shape. Copying these little trifles, the designers and makers of elegant dresses are adding to their creations dainty little scented mouchoir bags, which they add to gowns fashioned with a round waist. These are made variously of velvet, brocade, spangled net, peau de sole, embroidered kid, applique ornaments and velvet ribbon trimmings, and they are either suspended by a slender gold chain or they hang from the belt by lengths of the intertwined ribbon. To slip into these pretty pouches are set forth among dainties of the toilet the most exquisitely wrought handkerchiefs of every beautiful device that has ever yet been manufactured. These range in price from 60 cents to $35 each and grade from lace edged linen, embroidered batiste, silk and sheer linen lawn to duchess, alencon, venise and renaissance lace mouchoirs for full dress uses.

Table Decorations.
Table decorations are arranged in the form of a circle now and with a delightful result. For instance, at one dinner there was a centerpiece of ferns on the center mirror, and arranged around this in a circle were tall vases filled with jonquils, with the candles in a branching candelabra set in at intervals. The table itself was large and round, and the effect was everything that could be desired, says the Philadelphia Inquirer.

A different service of china with each course adds much joy to the diners—no unpleasant fish set or anything of that kind, to be sure. As a rule, there is nothing symbolical except good taste in the fine china used. Many simple conventional designs are to be seen, some of the fine hand painted china—which takes its turn with the porcelain from famous factories—in beautiful colors, but with only a simple border around the edge. Dresden and saxe will figure in different courses, and some fine old services for a dessert course.

A Useful Box.
This is a very useful box to hang on the wall to put flowers or any small article in. Any size cardboard box of fairly strong make is used for the foundation.

THE WALL BOX.

This is covered with velvet or satin lightly draped round and has a rounded drapery of satin over each side. The drapery is embroidered with a spray of flowers or a single flower. It is placed over stiff muslin, is lined with satin and edged with a ruche of silk or ribbon. The inside is lined with satin, that should be laid over a thin sheet of wadding to make it look soft. It may be fixed in with secotine. The lid is curved to the shape shown and is covered with embroidered satin to match the drapery and is lined at the back with satin. The edge is finished with a ruche, and a rosette is placed at one end to match those at the corners. Two loops must be sewed at the back of lid by which to suspend the box.

Strained Floors.
Unless the floors are new and well laid a stain improves them greatly, and even in a new house, where the hardwood floors are fresh and clean, some rooms look better stained. For the drawing room perhaps the finish used on parquet floors is the best—i.e., white shellac and afterward wax, the first coat of shellac acting as a filler, the second as a varnish. After this the wax is evenly applied with a rag, left to dry several hours (the longer the better), then polished with the heavy floor brush that comes for the purpose. Then a flannel cloth is laid on the floor, the brush put upon it to give it weight, and the floor is again polished to give it luster. After this floors are easily kept bright by being polished once a week with the flannel under the heavy floor brush, which slides along easily, and dusted daily after sweeping with an ordinary broom over which is pinned a woolen cloth.

"Shams" Out of Date.
Pillows have gone entirely out of fashion, and the beds are covered in the daytime with a bedspread of dainty dimity or with a flowered cretonne covering. If the summer home is a small one and there is a demand for greater room, couch beds are put into the various rooms. In the daytime these couches are covered with a gay cover of cedar cloth or chintz, and with a profusion of sofa pillows one would never guess that they were designed to see double service. At night the cover is easily removed and the couch transformed into the most comfortable of beds.

A GREAT WEEK

WILL THAT ONE BE COMMENCING SEPTEMBER 1.

Newark Elks Granted Privilege of Using Part of First Street for Their Big Carnival.

As will be seen by a perusal of the account of the proceedings of the City Council the local lodge of Elks has been granted permission to use First street from Main to Locust for its grand carnival to be given the first week in September, opening on Labor Day.

The occasion will be the fifth annual reunion of the Ohio Elks, and members of the order from all over the state to the number of many hundreds will be in attendance during the week. Almost every one of the 60 Ohio lodges has sent word that each will be represented by one delegate and one alternate, who will be accompanied to Newark by a herd from that lodge.

The Trades Council will co-operate with the Elks and together they have arranged for a monster Labor Day celebration to be participated in by Mt. Vernon, Mansfield and other places.

Carnival week with its continual round of pleasure and recreation will be the greatest in Newark's history in many ways.

The entire program is much better than in 1899, and its principal feature will be Bostock's famous animal show, to be seen in an improved form, just as it was seen in Buffalo during the Pan American Exposition.

First street will be used for this attraction, and the admission will be free to the street, on which there will be 12 different shows, including the great animal show, the famous merry-go-round and other features.

Every day there will be a number of free exhibitions, including a balloon ascension in which a monkey goes up in a balloon, descending in a parachute, and a thrilling high wire act.

The Elks and Trades Council are leaving nothing undone to make the entire week one, memorable in the amusement history of Newark and our citizens and business men are showing a most commendable spirit of co-operation to make the entire affair a great success.

PEOPLE OF THE DAY

Hill Will Aid West.

James J. Hill, the railway magnate, speaking for the Northern Pacific-Burlington combination, said to a prominent citizen of Omaha the other day that it was his intention to cut rates on lumber from the northwest to such low figures that lumber rates in the Missouri river cities would take a fall. He intimated that such rates would be made as could drive the northern and southern lumber out of western markets. He said:

"A short time ago when I visited the lumber fields of Washington and Oregon I called the lumbermen together and offered to haul their lumber to

JAMES J. HILL.

Missouri river common points for 40 and 50 cents. Since I came back and have given the matter closer attention I find I can assure the lumbermen of the northwest even a lower rate than the one quoted, and this will be done.

"Yes, we will have something to say about the lumber business in the near future, and the consumers will not be the ones to suffer by any change that may be brought about. Of course we want to be able to haul full train loads down from the northwest, and if we do not haul lumber what on earth can we haul? It is true we have other freight west, but we cannot afford to run our trains back empty?"

Ollie Doesn't Speculate.

In the corridor of 71 Broadway, writes Victor Smith in the New York Press, some one pointed out a handsome young man as the confidential secretary of Mr. Schwab, president of the United States Steel corporation. I recognized Ollie Wren. He cannot be over twenty-eight. Ten years ago he was typewriter and private secretary to his uncle, Harry Miner, theatrical manager, etc. His wages were $15 a week, without prospects. An opening appeared in the New York office of the Carnegie company, and after much hesitation Ollie left Miner. When the Carnegie company was absorbed by the steel corporation and Mr. Schwab became the active head of the trust, he retained Ollie as his clerical auxiliary. Not long after things got settled down the man who did not break the bank at Monte Carlo said:

"Ollie, do you speculate?"
"I do not," replied Wren.
"That's right; I'm glad you do not," Schwab went on. "You will find many opportunities in this business to speculate, but let that game alone, and I'll take care of you. Attend faithfully to your duties, and I will make you a rich man."
Ollie Wren's first year with Mr. Schwab brought him $10,000.

Professor Moore's Cooler.

Professor Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau at Washington, has filed application for a patent on what he calls a gravity air cooling, drying and purifying machine, the object of which is to keep down the temperature indoors in hot weather. Professor Moore says his invention, which is the result of several years of study and experimenting, will keep living rooms at a temperature of 70 to 72 degrees in the hottest weather. The cost of the machine will be so small that it will be within the reach of nearly all, so that the horrors of sweltering in stuffy rooms of the city during midsummer will be materially lessened. The apparatus is so simple that any one can manipulate it, and it can be quickly removed from room to room.

Dr. Cuestas Honored by Uruguay.

Dr. Juan Cuestas, minister from Uruguay, has notified Secretary Hay that he has been appointed by his government ambassador to the coronation of King Edward VII. He attended the ceremonies of the coming of age of King Alfonso XIII. of Spain in the same capacity. Minister Cuestas is the son of the president of Uruguay.

Yours for Health
Lydia E. Pinkham

How Truly the Great Fame of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Justifies Her Original Signature.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It will entirely cure the worst forms of Female Complaints, all Ovarian troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Falling and Displacement of the Womb, and consequent Spinal Weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the Change of Life.

It has cured more cases of Backache and Leucorrhoea than any other remedy the world has ever known. It is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels tumors from the Uterus in an early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors.

Irregular, Suppressed or Painful Menstruation, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Flooding, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility quickly yields to it.

Womb troubles, causing pain, weight, and backache, instantly relieved and permanently cured by its use. Under all circumstances it acts in harmony with the laws that govern the female system, and is as harmless as water.

It quickly removes that Bearing-down Feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, Dizziness, Faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues," and backache. These are sure indications of Female Weakness, or some derangement of the Uterus, which this medicine always cures.

Kidney Complaints and Backache of either sex the Vegetable Compound always cures.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles.

Those women who refuse to accept anything else are rewarded a hundred thousand times, for they get what they want—a cure. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Refuse all substitutes.

Hudson Avenue.

The City Council by ordinance Monday night changed the name of North Third street to Hudson avenue, the name by which the street has always been known to the older citizens. The action of the Council was based on a petition signed by nearly fifty of the leading residents of the street.

This street more than any other in the city has been greatly improved within the past two years and the improvements continue. Just now at the north end of the street many fine houses are under construction.

KICKED BY HORSE

DR. A. K. FOLLETT BADLY HURT NEAR GRANVILLE

Doctor Hurlled Across the Stable and Rendered Unconscious—Injured Internally, Ribs Broken.

Granville, O., June 2.—Dr. Kane Follett, one of the best known and most prominent practicing physicians of this county, had the misfortune to meet with an accident at his home a short distance east of Granville, several days ago, from which he narrowly escaped death. He had gone out to the stable to attend to the horses, when an old family horse turned on him and kicked him, knocking him down. Before he could get out of the way he horse kicked him again with both feet, in the side, hurling him clear across the stable and rendering him unconscious. His daughter, Miss Clara, who was with him, gave the alarm, and the injured man was taken into the house and a physician was summoned, who, upon examination, found that several ribs had been fractured and that he was injured internally. At this writing the Doctor is in a very precarious condition.

There are three things about the North pole that have never been discovered—exactly where it is, what it is, and why it is.

"We guarantee our 'Ariosa' and 'Rio' brands of Coffee to be a pure food, sound and healthful in every respect, prepared and marketed in strict conformity to the laws of Ohio; facts which we will maintain, at our expense, in any suit which the Commissioner may bring against us or any merchant selling the brands in question. All we require is prompt notice that prosecution has been instituted. We will do the rest."

NEWARK COUPLE

REFUSED MARRIAGE LICENSE IN KENTUCKY

Because of the Girl's Age—Scott H. Weekly and Delia Guthridge Are the Names.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of Tuesday morning, June 3, publishes this paragraph: Scott H. Weekly, 27, and Delia Guthridge, 17, both claiming their homes as Newark, Ohio, came to the County Clerk's office Monday morning for the purpose of getting a marriage license. The young woman begged Deputy Clerk Drexilius to write the certificate, saying she was 21 and that her sweetheart would not give him away. Drexilius could not be moved and then the couple wended their way to Newport where they were also refused.

Monday's Enquirer contained the following: Dell Freeze, 23, of Columbus, O., and Mamie Emsweller, 21, of Utica, O., walked in arm in arm. Drexilius was called to wait on them and he did it gracefully. Taking his goggles from his eyes he said: "Be sworn!" "I am 21," said the girl. They were sworn to the satisfaction of Drexilius. They hunted up Rev. B. F. Swindler, who pronounced them man and wife.

At Idlewild.

Supt. Jones, the scholars and the attendants of the deaf and dumb asylum at Columbus, numbering 650 are at Idlewild Park today having their annual picnic.

They are having a good time and are taking in all the many amusements of this beautiful place. This afternoon the rain interfered with the sports and amusements, but in spite of the rain the visitors have had a good time. They return to Columbus late this afternoon on a Pan Handle special train.

The boys and girls made a very favorable impression on all who visited the Park and saw them at their games.

Condensed Telegrams.

New York, June 2.—Henry Clay Evans, former commissioner of pensions, will sail for England tomorrow to assume the duties of his post as Consul General at London.

Norfolk, Va., June 3.—The ninety-fourth anniversary of the birth of Jefferson Davis, president of the confederacy, is being observed in Virginia today. It is a state holiday.

Liverpool, June 3.—The Post learns that the settlement in South Africa was due pre-eminently to General Lord Kitchener, whose influence with General Dewet persuaded the latter to accept the British government's terms.

Lafayette, Ind., June 3.—Geo. Barr McCutcheon, author of "Graustark", had a narrow escape from death Monday. While cleaning a desk an old pistol was accidentally discharged the bullet just grazing his body.

Findlay—McComb voted "dry" in the Beal local option campaign by a vote of 185 to 10. The voting strength of the town is 350.

Scioto—At the special election held under the Beal local option law Scioto went dry by a majority of 79.

The Great Medicine for "Building Up Weak and Sickly People in Summer."

PAINE'S Celery Compound

Rescues a Lady From Nervous Break-down.

The surest and speediest banisher of disease and sickness known to medical men, is Paine's Celery Compound. The peculiar virtues of Paine's Celery Compound enables it to reach all the centers where diseases working; it quickly banishes all pain and trouble.

At this time Paine's Celery Compound is a veritable boon to every nervous, weak and debilitated man and woman. The ailments and diseases that have held people in bondage and suffering up to the present, can be permanently banished by the use of a few bottles of nature's fire giver and health builder. Mrs. Mamie Goukler, No. 668 39th street, West Philadelphia, Pa., who suffered for months from severe nervous afflictions writes as follows:

"I beg leave to add my testimony to the wonderful good Paine's Celery Compound has done me. Some months ago I was troubled with a general breaking down of the system. I consulted a physician without avail, and upon the suggestion of Mr. John A. Coin, who I believe is a living example of your wonderful curing medicine, I purchased two bottles of your Compound, and I must say that I improved wonderfully since the first dose. My nervousness has left me entirely, and I am now feeling better than I ever did. You can rest assured that I will not hesitate to recommend your wonderful medicine to my friends who may be suffering from nervousness in any form."

MORNING GOWNS.

They Are Made of Linen, Pongee and Silk Gingham.

For morning wear at summer resorts entire dresses will be worn much more than shirt waists.

Gowns made of ecru linen will be cut blouse fashion and worn with belts and stocks of different pale colors. Gowns of glace linen will be popular principally in pink and blue. They will be trimmed with bands of Russian embroidery and are rather tailor made in effect, being trimmed with many rows of stitching as well as strappings.

Blouse and skirt costumes of pongee are very useful and becoming. They can be washed like cotton.

Silk gingham is another material which lends itself to the morning costume. Made up with a tucked blouse waist, three-quarter length sleeves and a belt of beading with a ribbon run through, this makes a dainty dress. Unlined dresses of dotted muslin made with elbow sleeves are very cool looking for hot days.

A pretty grass linen gown is here shown. The waist is laid in tucks. There is a bolero effect headed and edged by wide ecru applique. The tops of the sleeves are tucked, and they terminate at the elbows with wide cuffs. The skirt has a tucked front panel and a tucked circular ruffle. The entire dress is trimmed with narrow black velvet ribbon.

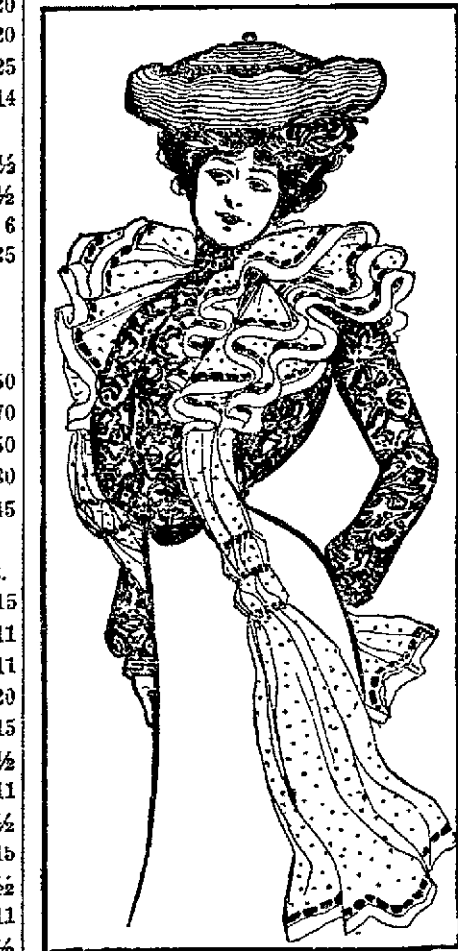

The hat which goes with this is of ecru straw trimmed with black and white tulle and an ecru ostrich feather.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

SILKS AND CHIFFONS.

Light Colored Taffetas Much Used For Dressy Wear.

Light colored taffetas are being much used for evening wear. A recent example was a pink taffeta santonized by applications of heavy ecru lace. The waist pouched both back and front.

A SMART BUFFLE.

The sleeves and yoke were entirely of lace insertion, which also went down the skirt and spread at the bottom in intricate veinings.

Pongee is not so popular as in former seasons. Plain materials are more fashionable. When foulard is used, it is usually of the satin finished variety in pale, almost indistinct, colorings.

The hat in the illustration is of tucked chiffon with a straw crown. The neck ruffle is of dotted net, with a cape effect formed of three ruffles and two ends shirred in three places. It is trimmed with narrow velvet ribbons run through beading.
